

Privacy Policy of Griffin Enterprises, LLC, and of its course: MoneyU®

MoneyU is a consumer-centric course in Personal Finance, designed for young adult learners to acquire and practice financial skills.

We respect your privacy and we do not rent, sell, or lease your information to any third party. The details containing your electronic payment are securely transmitted from our payment gateway to our credit card processor for the sole purpose of authorizing your transaction so that we may provide you access to the MoneyU course, including support services.

By using the MoneyU website, you consent to our use of your information as described in this Privacy Policy. We reserve the right to change our privacy policy at any time without advance notice. We will post it on this site, and the revised policy will apply only to information collected thereafter.

Your visit on our site MoneyU.com is tracked through standard web traffic statistics programs, which keep records of traffic on the site. When you request pages from our web site, our servers may log your IP Address. When you register into the MoneyU course, we also track which lessons you have completed, your progress in the course, and your scores on the pretest and the posttest. Our server automatically collects data about your server's Internet address when you visit us.

User information may be disclosed to government authorities or other third parties when required or permitted by law, including, but not limited to, in response to court orders and subpoenas. We also may disclose user information in connection with investigations or when we have reason to believe that someone is causing injury to or interference with our rights or property.
